

GEORGE LAMPSHIRE

Trainer/Manager/Matchmaker

1940-1960's

George Lampshire was a noted trainer, matchmaker and promoter for close to 30 years from the 1930's through the 1960's. He was also a trainer and matchmaker for Monsignor Kelliher when he ran the Golden Gloves in the 1960's. Dick Wipperman commented that Lampshire was Monsignor Kelleher right hand man for the Golden Gloves and any other boxing cards promoted by Kelliher.

Lampshire managed Joe Moscato and Henry Brimm. He also worked or was part of the careers of Johnny Green, Dick Wipperman, Lee Batchelor, Tommy Maddox, Bernie Blatcher and many others.

To cover his own personal expenses he worked for the City of Buffalo as an inspector of street lights.

